

It's not too late to respond to the 2020 Census!

COUNT US IN 2020

Key Things to Know:

- Filling out the Census helps your family and community get its fair share of funding for important government programs and services.
- Your Census response is confidential.
- Be sure to count everyone who was living at your address on April 1, 2020 including young children and babies.

Go online to www.my2020census.gov to respond from the comfort of your home. Or, you can call the Census Bureau and respond over the phone.
